DEMOCRATS IN ROW REFUSES A SALARY

Governor-Elect Precipitates Trouble in New Jersey.
Mr. Brandeis Accepts Roads' Offer, But Declines Pay.

OPPOSES JAMES SMITH, JR. INSTRUCTION IN ECONOMY

Dr. Wilson Determined to Thwart His Senatorial Ambitions.
Attorney Will Try to Show How Large Sum Daily Can Be Saved.

WANTS POPULAR WILL OBEYED

James E. Martine Chooses at Primary.
Feud Between Choice of Party Imminent.
Proposes in Letter That Presidents of Eastern Railways Also Be Invited to Attend.

The democratic party in New Jersey hasn't even had an opportunity to celebrate its recent smashing victory at the polls before it has opened up a good, old-fashioned Kilkenny row, with prospects of a grim being put in the Woodrow Wilson presidential boom before it is launched. The Jersey democrats have thus the first in the field with a factional squabble.

The trouble is over the aspirations of former Senator James Smith, Jr., to a seat in the United States Senate. Dr. Woodrow Wilson, governor-elect, has, it is reported, served notice on Mr. Smith, that he will oppose his senatorial ambitions, in a letter written to Mr. Smith.

Dr. Wilson thus assumes the leadership of the democratic party in the state, attempting to displace Mr. Smith, who up to this time has been the actual and practical democratic "boss" and who has confidently expected to enjoy the usufruct of that position by taking into himself the senatorship.

Stands by the People.

Dr. Wilson's explanation of his attitude is that James E. Martine is the choice of the people, expressed at the primary, for the democratic candidate for senator before the legislature, and that he will not be a party to upsetting that expression of choice in favor of former Senator Smith.

New Jersey held primaries on the senatorship this fall, under a new law. The law was not mandatory and was not taken seriously by the "practical politicians." There was Senator Keen, for example, who declined to submit his name to the primary. He preferred to take his chances with the legislature than with the primary. His course was followed by some other republican candidates for the senatorship.

At that time the widest degrees of the democratic party in the state, however, "just for luck," submitted his name to the primary. He was not elected, but he did not care much attention to it, preferring to rest their case with the legislature, a la Senator Keen's method. Mr. Martine was declared the choice of the democratic party.

Dr. Woodrow Wilson, in behalf of popular government, insists that the people's will shall be respected and that Mr. Smith shall not be allowed to step in and wrest the prize from Mr. Martine.

Scrimmage Is Expected.

If he succeeds in keeping Mr. Smith out of the Senate, Jerseyans say that the former senator, who is still powerful in practical politics, will surely set up the line to vote with the western democrats against the radicals, and his associations since have been with the class that Bryan has persistently opposed.

AMPUTATES WITH RAZOR HAND HE HAD CRUSHED

Virginia Farmer, Victim of Corn Shredder, Operates on Himself.

RICHMOND, Va., November 29.—Cutting off his own hand with a razor after it had been crushed in a corn shredder today, J. Bruce Vaughan of Eureka Mills, Charlotte county, Va., carefully attended the stump and calmly awaited the arrival of a surgeon to put the finishing touches to the single-handed operation.

Vaughan, while at work on the farm during the morning, got his left hand caught in a corn shredder. The machine mangled the member horribly as far as the writing fingers were concerned. Medical assistance was not to be had for hours. Suffering intensely from the injury, Vaughan decided to remove the crushed hand.

Going into his home he took his razor and performed the operation. Afterward he tied and bandaged the stump to stop the flow of blood until a surgeon could arrive to finish the operation.

HELD FOR WIFE MURDER.

Bond Is Fixed at $20,000 in Dr. Buck's Case.

GREENSBURG, Kan., November 29.—Dr. G. H. Buck of this city, at his preliminary hearing here last night, was held for the murder of his wife, who died a month ago. His bond was fixed at $20,000. Physicians who examined the viscera of the dead woman testified that the symptoms of her death indicated cyanide poisoning.

Mrs. Buck was twenty-four years old and married the physician a year ago.

SAFE CONTENTS INTACT.

MUSCOGEE, Okla., November 29.—The iron safe containing $18,000 stolen from the substitution of the Wells-Fargo Express company here last Saturday night, was found last night and all the money recovered. The safe, which was found under the porch of an abandoned house, was not broken open.

O. F. Hensbaugh, W. H. Kealey and E. O. Ghis, who were arrested following the disappearance of the safe, are being held.

'CUT IT,' SAYS TAFT

Tells Cabinet Heads to Prune Their Annual Estimates.

DISTRICT OFFICIALS, TOO

Summoned to White House and Told to Keep Down Expenses.

WANTS ECONOMY TO BE REAL

Department Heads Urged to Give Their Personal Attention to Retrenching Public Expenditures.

The unusual incident of a President of the United States personally investigating the estimated expenditure of every dollar of government money for a future fiscal year was noted at the White House today, when President Taft called in the heads of every department, including the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and spent the whole day delving into the detailed figures of each branch of the government service. Not only did the President want to know the whys and wherefores of each estimate of any large amount, but he repeated his former injunctions to cabinet officers to hold their estimates within the smallest possible sum.

By his work during the past few months and today the President emphatically displays not only a purpose to familiarize himself with every detail of government expenditure but a determination to make governmental economy and efficiency a reality, it was declared by a cabinet officer today.

Every Man to His Duty.

Retrenchment in expenditures and economy are to have, according to today's developments, real meaning. The President takes the view that curtailment of expenditures in the department and throughout the government service cannot be brought about unless every official, from the head of the government down, including senators and representatives, having to do with the making of appropriations, takes a personal interest in the work, and uses his utmost endeavor to accomplish something in the way of real economy.

This is the first year, however, that Mr. Taft has undertaken personally to review the estimates and reach an agreement with the heads of important committees and departments upon the appropriations to be made for the branches of the service about which they have something to say. Last year, for months before Congress assembled the President several times urged his cabinet officers to reduce their estimated expenditures for the following year to the lowest possible amount. Through this and the personal interest he took at that time the estimated bill for the fiscal year 1912 was $2,700,000,000. Early this year the President again informed cabinet officers that the same thing was to be done, namely, that the budget for the fiscal year 1913 should be reduced to a business basis as possible.

Must Reduce Further, Are Orders.

As he went over department by department today the President told each cabinet officer that estimates must be cut still further, cut right down to the actual necessities of the service of the respective departments. To those who declared that their estimates were already at the bottom the President demurred, and asked each officer to make a further reduction. He suggested that each cabinet officer take a personal hand in the preparation of estimates to a degree not yet attempted.

The President's earnestness greatly impressed his cabinet advisers, who returned to their respective departments intent upon giving all the aid possible.

River and Harbor Estimates.

Representative Alexander, chairman of the river and harbor committee of the House, was called into the conference of the day, as was Gen. Bixby, chief of engineers of the army, the object being to reach an agreement, as far as practicable, that river and harbor appropriations for the next fiscal year should be based upon the results of a thorough investigation by engineers of the army. The President is on record as opposing to appropriations for projects having no scientific approval. He wants these appropriations to have the same business basis as any other expenditure.

After the last session of Congress the committee on rivers and harbors unanimously adopted a resolution that the annual river and harbor bills to begin with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, the bill of 1910, being preceded by the bill of 1911, and the bill of 1912, being preceded by the bill of 1911, and the bill of 1913, being preceded by the bill of 1912, and the bill of 1914, being
